

Whoo News December 2016

Oh, What a Glorious Year!

As we approach the end of 2016 I reflect on the year and see what we did, what happened and where it went. One thing for certain, it was a year like none other in our marina life, for the first time we were completely full and had a wait list for guests and tenants. We also got to spend more time on land than on the water, thanks to the Department of Boating and Waterways' weed control program.

But, most of all, we have continued to add to our special Marina family and community and for that we are most grateful. For you are what makes Owl Harbor Marina so special and we appreciate you being here.

Enjoy your family and friends and we will be here to start another incredible year!

Happy New Years! We will be closed New Year's Day and Monday, January 2nd but we look forward to seeing you on January 3rd!

We will be making new and exciting additions and changes for the coming New Year 2017, so be sure to follow us by Newsletter or Email.

You can view the entire 2017 event calendar on our Owl Harbor website, or check out the information board by the ice box on the clubhouse deck.

Gardeners: For those that have gardens, please remove all your old plants and put in the compost pile. If you're not sure where it is, please ask us. Also, please remove all your sprinklers and waterers if you would like your plot tilled and refreshed. If you are no longer interested in a spot, please let us know so that we can provide another tenant the opportunity to have a spot.

Thanks for your help.

New Baby Chicks will be here in January so be on the look out for the little feather puffs.

Owl Harbor Marina “National Small Marina of the Year 2016”

On September 27th I sent in an application to the national trade magazine, Marina Dock Age, for the small marina of the year competition. The application had many questions, requirements and information about what makes us different from other places. The information needed to be submitted in 4 days, and for those that know me, I'm a little long winded so I worked diligently on it - all 4 days. It also asked for pictures, and well, just like I talk, I picked my favorite 242 pictures. We did narrow them down and everything was sent in on time.

On November 30th, Casey and I flew to St. Louis, MO., and accepted the award on December 1st.

What an incredible honor to be awarded this prestigious award! Congratulations to the team at Owl Harbor for making it the most wonderful place in the United States of America.
