Picnic Reservations

As the season kicks off, we just want to remind everyone that if you are looking at reserving a picnic area, there are a few things that need to be completed so you can enjoy your stay.

1. Please check with the office to reserve the picnic area.
2. An Overnight Guest Form needs to be completed for all guests staying at the marina.
3. There is a charge for guests to stay at the picnic areas; $30 per night for up to 2 people per unit (tent, camper, rv), $10 for each additional guest in the unit.
4. Any cancellations must be done a minimum of 1 week to get a full refund. If payment is not made, clients will see a charge on your monthly statement.
5. As clients at the marina, you are responsible for your guests. Please be sure they are aware of our policies to ensure a safe and enjoyable stay.

We appreciate your help always.

Flags are flying high .....

Happy Memorial Day! Last year's holidays seem to be a bit of a combination; blur and lonely. Well, not this year. Like houses, it's a sellers market, and everyone has re-discovered boating. They are remembering how wonderful it is to be on the water, sailing, swimming, napping, or rafting up with friends. We can have it all this year. We are trying to get our house here in order for the first "event" at the marina with BCBC yacht club coming in for the weekend. Good thing many already stay with us as this is the second year we have had to have a waiting list for clients looking to stay here. We are thrilled to be enjoyed by so many and for sharing us with your friends.

The garden is going strong and we are looking at picking fairly soon; beans, chard, zucchini, squash. The fruit trees are loaded, I just hope the branches don't break before we harvest. In the meantime, stop by for our new favorites; dehydrated pineapple and apple.

Happy Summer Season,
Devery, Max, and Captain Jack Sparrow

Please contact Devery with ideas, suggestions or if you would like to host Saturday evening's potluck.

Looking forward to a fun weekend!

Owl Harbor Tenant BBQ/Dinghy Poker Run 7/31

We are back and ready for a fun gathering of our favorite people - we have missed you. We have decided on a theme for our weekend gathering and hope you "get into the spirit" of living in color.

This year,'s theme

"Color Rhapsody"

With the last year living in our homes, missing our family and friends, we want you to enjoy the colors of Owl Harbor and the wonderful colors of the Delta. We have a full day planned, so you will want to be sure to stay the weekend to get in some relaxing time too.

Searching for "Color" you will find: shade, affect, alter, influence, hue, tint. If you search the meaning of the word "Rhapsody" you will find; joy, happiness, enthusiasm, elation, bliss, rapture, thrill. So, what does this mean, well, it's a personal journey of your own shade of happiness, bliss, thrill. You get a chance to show your shade and decorate you, your boat, or something else.

Here's the plan:

1. Dinghy Poker Run

We will start at 11:00 am at A dock, so bring your kayak, paddle board, blow up toy, dinghy or swim. Each group will receive 1 card and then advance to the next stop to pick up your next card. Once everyone has finished, we will gather at the main deck and lay down our hands. We will have prizes; Best Hand will get $100, Worst Hand will get $50! Not to bad for a day in the water.

2. Arts and Crafts

During the afternoon, you will find paint, tie dye, and other items by the office to decorate an item you bring (think white t-shirt for tie dying, apron, towel etc....), Or if you don't want to bring an item, we will have a large white sheet so you can paint your "color" to Owl Harbor's story (no tie dying on the sheet). We thought it would be great to see what artists we have at the marina. Be warned, if you are planning on doing the tie dying, you will need to take it home to launder, please do not use our restrooms or laundry facility.

3. Evening BBQ

5:30 pm, join us for a BBQ dinner with all the fixings. If you have special dietary/health restrictions, please be prepared to bring your special provisions. Beer, wine and water will be provided all complimentary with your dinner. During dinner, we will select a winner of the definition of "Color Rhapsody".

4. Outdoor Movie

Dusk brings the end to a magical day. We will be showing a family friendly movie for everyone to see. Please bring a chair, possible blanket, and bug spray. Relax, and enjoy the movie.

This event is only for our clients staying with us, we are sorry we cannot accommodate your guests at this time. We appreciate your understanding.
